Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP (“D&L”), attorneys for Ambac Financial Group, Inc., as debtor and debtor in possession in the above-captioned case (the “Debtor,” and together with its nondebtor affiliates, “Ambac”), submits its second monthly fee and expense statement (the “Statement”), pursuant to sections 327, 330(a) and 331 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”), Rule 2016 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), the United States Trustee Guidelines for Reviewing Applications for Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses Filed Under 11 U.S.C. §330 issued by the Executive Office for United States Trustee (the “Guidelines”), Amended Guidelines for Fees and Disbursements for Professionals in Southern District of New York Bankruptcy Cases adopted by the Court on November 25, 2009 (the “Local Guidelines”), United States Bankruptcy Court of the Southern District of New York’s General Order M-412 Order signed on December 21, 2010 by Chief Judge Arthur J. Gonzalez Amending General Order M-388; Re: Procedures for Monthly Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals, effective December 21, 2010 (the “General Order”) and this Court’s Order Pursuant to Sections 105(a) and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a) Establishing Procedures for Interim Monthly Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses of Professionals, dated December 21, 2010 (the “Interim Compensation Order”) [Docket No. 81], for (i) the monthly compensation for professional services performed by D&L for the period commencing January 1, 2011 through and including January 31, 2011 (the “Monthly Compensation Period”) in the amount of $1,279,077.00 and (ii) reimbursement of its actual and necessary expenses in the amount of $47,289.32 incurred during the Monthly Compensation Period.

SUMMARY OF PROFESSIONAL COMPENSATION AND REIMBURSEMENT OF EXPENSES REQUESTED

1. By the Court’s Order, dated December 21, 2010, Debtor was authorized to employ D&L as its attorneys, nunc pro tunc to the Commencement Date, with regard to the filing and prosecution of this case and all related matters (the “Employment Order”) [Docket No. 84]. The Employment Order authorized Debtor to compensate D&L in accordance with the procedures set forth in sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and such other procedures as were established by the Interim Compensation Order.

2. D&L seeks allowance of monthly compensation for professional services rendered to Debtor during the Monthly Compensation Period in the aggregate amount of $1,279,077.00 (representing the charge for the 2,041.60 hours of service provided by D&L attorneys and paraprofessionals) and for reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with the rendition of such services in the aggregate amount of $47,289.32.

3. There is no agreement or understanding between D&L and any other person, other than members of the firm, for the sharing of compensation to be received for services rendered in this case.

4. The fees charged by D&L in this case are billed in accordance with D&L's existing billing rates and procedures in effect during the Monthly Compensation Period. The rates D&L charges for the services rendered by its professionals and paraprofessionals in this chapter 11 case are the same rates D&L charges for professional and paraprofessional services rendered in comparable nonbankruptcy related matters. Such fees are reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in comparable nonbankruptcy cases in a competitive national legal market.

5. Pursuant to the Fee Guidelines and General Order, annexed hereto as Exhibit A is a schedule setting forth the identity of all D&L professionals and paraprofessionals who have performed services in this chapter 11 case during the Monthly Compensation Period, the capacity in which each such individual is employed by D&L, the department in which each individual practices, the hourly billing rate charged by D&L for services performed by such individual, the aggregate number of hours expended in this matter and fees billed therefor, and the year in which each professional was first licensed to practice law.

6. The majority of the services performed by members, counsel, and associates of D&L were rendered by the Business Solutions & Governance, Litigation and Tax departments. D&L has extensive expertise, experience, and knowledge practicing before bankruptcy courts. Attorneys from D&L have represented debtors, creditors, purchasers, and other parties-in-interest before courts in the Southern District of New York, the Second Circuit, and in numerous other jurisdictions throughout the country. As a consequence, D&L brings to this case a high level of expertise and experience that inures to the benefit of Debtor and all parties-in-interests.

7. The professional services performed by D&L on behalf of Debtor during the Monthly Compensation Period required an aggregate expenditure of 2,041.60 hours by D&L's members, counsel, associates, and paraprofessionals. Of the aggregate time expended, 931.60 recorded hours were expended by partners and counsel of D&L, 914.20 recorded hours were expended by associates of D&L, and 195.80 recorded hours were expended by paraprofessionals of D&L.

8. During the Monthly Compensation Period, D&L billed Debtor for time expended by attorneys based at hourly rates ranging from $275.00 to $1,000.00 per hour. Allowance of compensation in the amount requested would result in a blended hourly billing rate for attorneys of approximately $668.07 (based on 1,845.80 recorded hours for attorneys at D&L's regular billing rates in effect at the time of the performance of services). As noted, annexed hereto as Exhibit A is a schedule listing each D&L professional and paraprofessional who performed services in this case during the Monthly Compensation Period, the hourly rate charged by D&L for services performed by each such individual, and the aggregate number of hours and charges by each such individual.

9. D&L minimized fees by utilizing a small core team to render the bulk of all services requested.

10. Annexed hereto as Exhibit B is a schedule specifying the categories of expenses for which D&L is seeking reimbursement and the total amount for each such expense category.

11. Pursuant to the Guidelines and annexed hereto as Exhibit C, is a summary of the significant professional services rendered by D&L during the Monthly Compensation Period for all task codes in which D&L billed a minimum of five (5) hours during the Monthly Compensation Period. The summary is separated by project categories as hereinafter described. 12. D&L maintains computerized records of the time billed by all D&L attorneys and paraprofessionals in connection with the prosecution of Debtor's chapter 11 case. Relevant copies of the computerized records for the Monthly Compensation Period are annexed hereto as Exhibit D.

13. In accordance with the factors enumerated in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, the amount of fees requested is fair and reasonable given: (a) the complexity of this case; (b) the time expended; (c) the nature and extent of the services rendered; (d) the value of such services; (e) D&L's established expertise in the bankruptcy field; and (f) the costs of comparable services other than in a case under the Bankruptcy Code.

ACTUAL AND NECESSARY EXPENSES OF D&L

14. As set forth on Exhibit B annexed hereto, D&L has disbursed $47,289.32 as expenses incurred in providing professional services during the Compensation Period. With respect to photocopying expenses, D&L charges all of its clients $0.25 per page except when limited by a court to $0.20 per page. Pursuant to the Guidelines and the Local Guidelines, D&L has agreed to charge Debtor $0.20 per page for photocopying expenses in this chapter 11 case. With respect to facsimile expenses, in compliance with the Guidelines, D&L does not charge for facsimile transmissions, other than the cost of long distance facsimiles at applicable toll charge rates, which invariably are less than the $1.00 per page permitted by the Guidelines and the Local Guidelines. Each of these categories of expenses does not exceed the maximum rate set by the Guidelines and the Local Guidelines. These charges are intended to cover D&L's direct operating costs, which costs are not incorporated into the D&L hourly billing rates. Only clients who actually use services of the types set forth in Exhibit B are separately charged for such services. The effect of including such expenses as part of the hourly billing rates would impose that cost upon clients who do not require extensive photocopying and other facilities and services. The amount of the standard photocopying charge is intended to allow D&L to cover the related expenses of its photocopying service. A determination of the actual expenses per page for photocopying, however, is dependent on both the volume of copies and the total expenses attributable to photocopying on an annual basis.

15. In addition, because of the location of the offices of the client and many opposing counsel, frequent long distance telephone calls were required. On several occasions, overnight delivery of documents and other materials was required as a result of circumstances necessitating the use of such express services. These disbursements are not included in D&L's overhead for the purpose of setting billing rates. D&L has made every effort to minimize its disbursements in this case. The actual expenses incurred in providing professional services were absolutely necessary, reasonable, and justified under the circumstances to serve the needs of Debtor, their estates, and creditors.

THE REQUESTED COMPENSATION IS ALLOWABLE

16. Section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code provides for interim compensation of professionals and incorporates the substantive standards of section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code to govern the Court's award of such compensation. 11 U.S.C. § 331. Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a court may award a professional employed under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered ... and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses." Id. § 330(a)(1)(A)-(B). Section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code also sets forth the criteria for the award of such compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded ... the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

(A) the time spent on such services;

(B) the rates charged for such services;

(C) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this title;

(D) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;

(E) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field;
and

(F) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this title.

17. In the instant case, D&L respectfully submits the professional services for which it seeks compensation and the expenditures for which it seeks reimbursement in this Statement were necessary for and beneficial to Debtor's orderly administration of their estates and their restructuring efforts. D&L worked diligently to anticipate or respond to Debtor's needs and assist in Debtor's navigation of the chapter 11 process. Such services and expenditures were necessary to and in the best interests of Debtor's estates and creditors. D&L further submits the compensation requested herein is reasonable in light of the nature, extent, and value of such services to Debtor, their estates, and all parties in interest.

18. The professional services performed by D&L during the Monthly Compensation Period were necessary and appropriate to the administration of Debtor's chapter 11 case. The professional services performed by D&L were in the best interests of Debtor and other parties-in-interest. Compensation for the foregoing services as requested is commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problems, issues, or tasks involved. The professional services were performed with expedience and in an efficient manner.

19. Whenever possible, D&L sought to minimize the costs of its services to Debtor by utilizing talented junior attorneys and paraprofessionals to handle the more routine aspects of case administration. A small group of the same D&L attorneys was utilized for the vast majority of the work in this case to minimize the costs of intra-D&L communication and education about Debtor's circumstances.

20. Notably, some motions and applications were submitted by D&L on behalf of Debtor after D&L had developed a consensus among the parties-in-interest as to the substantive relief sought. That served to minimize the amount of time and expense related to attending hearings. In addition, because Debtor was able to achieve consensus on its applications, many of the applications were submitted on notice of presentment, which did not require attendance at a hearing.

21. In sum, the services rendered by D&L were necessary and beneficial to Debtor's estates and were consistently performed in a timely manner commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the issues involved, and approval of the compensation for professional services and reimbursement of expenses sought herein is warranted.

RESERVATION

22. To the extent time or disbursement charges for services rendered or disbursements incurred relate to the Monthly Compensation Period but were not processed prior to the preparation of this Statement, or D&L has for any other reason not yet sought compensation or reimbursement of expenses herein with respect to any services rendered or expenses incurred during the Monthly Compensation Period, D&L reserves the right to request additional compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future fee statement.

NOTICE AND OBJECTION PERIOD

23. Pursuant to the Interim Compensation Order, this Statement was served by hand or overnight delivery on (a) Debtor, Attn: David Trick, One State Street Plaza, New York, New York 10004; (b) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York, Attn: Brian S. Masumoto, 33 Whitehall Street, 21st Floor, New York, New York 10001 (the “U.S. Trustee”); and, (c) counsel to the statutory committee of unsecured creditors appointed in this case (the “Committee”) and filed with the Clerk of the Court in the format specified by the Guidelines.

24. If any party in interest has an objection to the compensation or reimbursement of D&L, such party shall, by no later than the thirty-fifth day following the month for which compensation is sought, (the “Objection Deadline”), file with the Bankruptcy Court and serve upon Debtor, D&L, the U.S. Trustee and the Committee a written “Notice of Objection to Fee Statement” setting forth the nature of the objection and the amount of fees or expenses at issue.

25. At the expiration of the Objection Deadline, Debtor shall promptly pay eighty percent (80%) of the fees and one hundred percent (100%) of the expenses identified in the Statement to which no objection has been served in accordance with the Interim Compensation Order.
